

EDMUND PENDLETON COHILL, member of the Washington County school board and one of the most esteemed and influential citizens of Hancock, was born in Elmira, N. Y., December 3, 1855, and is a son of Andrew A. and Mary Jane (Mapes) Cohill, and a grandson of Andrew A. Cohill, who emigrated to this country from one of the German provinces and settled on a tract of land now included in the town of Huntingdon, Pa. Here he married Miss _____ Steel, of Huntingdon County, Pa. He was engaged in the agricultural business until his death in 18—. He and his wife were devout members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and were laid to rest in the cemetery at Williamsburg, Blair Co., Pa. They had the following children: Margaret, who married Snyder Ake, and resides at Williamsburg, Pa.; a daughter, unmarried, who resides with her sister, Mrs. Ake; George, who died in Orbisonia, Pa.; and Andrew A., the father of Edmund P. Cohill.

Parents

Grandparents

Ancestors of Edmund Pendleton Cohill I